

Building Community 2017

INDIGENEITY IN ARCHITECTURAL EDUCATION & PRACTICE

BUILDING COMMUNITY FORUM

PRESENTED BY THE SASKATCHEWAN ASSOCIATION OF ARCHITECTS

THURSDAY, MAY 4th, 2017

Panel Discussion: 3:00 - 5:45 pm

Keynote Address - Shaun Loney: 6:00 - 7:00 pm

Frances Morrison Library Theatre

311 - 23rd Street East, Saskatoon

Admission: Free ticket at Picatic.com/SAA_Community_Forum

This Public Forum features a panel of Indigenous community leaders coming together to share ideas for building community, recognizing the Truth And Reconciliation Commission of Canada's call to action relative to education and building stronger communities.

Panel members include:

Chief Lynn Acoose, Zagime First Nation

Allan Adam, President/CEO, Dene Hha Communications

Dr. David Fortin, Associate Prof., McEwen School of Architecture

Mayor Nick Daigneault, Northern Village of Beauval

Tribal Chief Felix Thomas, Saskatoon Tribal Council

Keynote Speaker - Shaun Loney, AKI Energy

The Emerging Problem Solving Paradigm

Shaun's Keynote Address will touch on connecting people who most need the work, with work that needs to be done. Who are the problem solvers? What can be done to promote them? What does this look like in the Saskatchewan context?

Special Guest: Performance by Saskatoon Public Schools' Indigenous Ensemble

Proudly Presented by:

Event Sponsors:

CONSTRUCTION

