

Saskatchewan Association of Architects Appoints new Executive Director

Saskatoon, SK – May 29, 2025 – The Saskatchewan Association of Architects (SAA) is pleased to announce the appointment of Fiseko Musonda as its new Executive Director, effective May 29, 2025.

Fiseko brings over a decade of experience in non-profit leadership, with specialized training in business, economic policy, and non-profit management. She joins us most recently from her role as Executive Director of the Saskatchewan Elocution and Debate Association, where she led efforts to modernize administrative and financial practices and guide organizational change.

Fiseko holds a Master's Degree in International Political Economy from the University of Kent, Brussels School of International Studies, and a Bachelor of Arts in International Studies from the University of Saskatchewan. Her global perspective and strong Saskatchewan roots position her well to support the profession and serve our members effectively.

"We are thrilled to welcome Fiseko Musonda as the new Executive Director of the SAA. Throughout the search process, Fiseko impressed us with her energy, strategic mindset, and deep commitment to excellence. Her skills and leadership will no doubt have a lasting and positive impact on the Association, our members and the public." Louis Aussant, Council Past-President and Chair of the Executive Search Committee.

We are excited to have Fiseko join the SAA and look forward to introducing her to our members and the broader architectural community in Saskatchewan, across Canada, and beyond.
