University of Saskatchewan Campus Master Plan

The U of S is developing a new Campus Master Plan that will guide how the university campus will develop over the next 30 years and they are looking for input. June 13th they will be hosting a community engagement session. This is an opportunity to provide input on topics such as development, building design, transportation networks, outdoor landscapes, public gathering spaces, sustainability, and place-making for the future of campus.

Everyone is welcome to come and share their ideas about the future of the U of S campus. They will have interactive maps, images, and panels on display to collect your ideas.

School of Architecture and Visual Arts Survey Invitation

Scott Kopelchuk of Abonar Business Consultants Ltd. is working with the Oversight Committee for the School of Architecture and Visual Arts (SAVA) at the University of Saskatchewan to update the business case that was originally completed in 2010. You may remember they sent you a survey at that time to gather information to inform the business case. The link below is an updated survey to gather new information to reflect the state of the industry in 2017.

SAA Members are invited to complete the new survey at your earliest convenience. It should take about 15 minutes.
